Heavenly Father,

We come here this morning in praise and worship of you. We also come to thank you for the gift of your Son, our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Thank you for the teachings of Jesus. Thank you for gift of family, of friends, of mentors, and of our church family. You did not want us to live our lives alone, but rather in fellowship with one another and with you. While we feel sadness in acknowledging our loss of no longer having our loved ones with us each day, Heavenly Father, we rejoice this morning in knowing that they have joined the great cloud of witnesses we read about in Hebrews. We praise you Lord, for the saints you place in our lives to guide us and we thank you for the example that Chuck, Jim, Kent, John, and Erin have been to us of how we should live our lives on earth. We are who we are because of who they were. We give thanks to you O God, for both the saints in glory and those still on earth, who have led us to Jesus and a closer relationship with you. As the saints before us have shared the gospel with us, we pray that we add our voices so someone else may hear about the unending love and amazing grace of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. We give thanks to You O God this morning for the lives of these beloved five and all your saints. We pray all this in the precious name of Jesus, Amen.
